❖ 10:00 am-10:45 am: Burlington Council on Juvenile Justice System Improvement: Kelly Johnston and Shirla Simpson

- The local council is committed to the creation of a comprehensive and sustainable collaborative process to effect long-term changes in our juvenile justice system. We will promote healthy youth development that ensures the safety of all youth and our community by promoting due process guarantees, system improvements, evidence-based interventions and programming for youth and families.

❖ 10:45am-11:30am: YSAC: Judge Richard Nocella, Jim Groff, and Ric Carpenter

- The Burlington County Youth Services Advisory Council (YSAC) serves as a primary advisory board related to youth at risk or involved with the Family Court, Probation or Parole. The YSAC has been planning services for court involved youth since the mid 1980's. The YSAC's mission is to plan and fund programs for youth to prevent, divert or redirect them from juvenile justice involvement.
